

OUR STAFF

MO KEITA

Skillz Check founder Mo Keita grew up in Guinea, Africa playing with the youth National team. Mo attended school at the University of Rhode Island where he appeared twice in the NCAA I Tournament before moving to Germany to play with Ismanning FC and 1860 Munchen. Mo, who earned a National coaching license from the United State Soccer Federation "A", specializes in coaching all positions and has produced National level players throughout his coaching in New England.

WINSTON HAUGHTON

Currently the academy director for Elite Boys and Girls U11-U14, Winston is a UEFA Licensed coach. During his time in the United Kingdom, Winston was a youth and reserve player for EPL team Aston Villa FC where he excelled as both a forward and attacking midfielder. Winston also coached in Community for EPL team Birmingham F.C.

MOHAMMED SOUISEE

Born and raised in Safi, Morocco, Mohammed played soccer as a youth in the streets of Safi which fueled his passion for the sport. By the age of seven, Mohammed was at the academy, honing his skills and at 15 years old Mohammed signed a contract with Hicham where he played for the next seven years. Mohammed is currently coaching at Commonwealth High School Boston. In 2011, he received his USSF A license.

JULIUS PERTILLAR

Currently the Director for Senior Boys in Boston/Metro North at NEFC and volunteer assistant coach for the Harvard Men's Soccer team, Pertillar played goalkeeper for Salem State University and led the Vikings to several conference championships and one NCAA elite eight appearance. He signed his first professional contract with the Rhode Island Stingrays and also played the goalkeeper position for the New Hampshire Phantoms.

2019 PROGRAMS
